The charge against him today was suspicion. He owed a storekeeper a few pennics and because he would not further trust him the boy threatened to get even with him. That night the store was robbed, but it could not be proven that Eddie did the job.

The court thought the best thing to do with Eddie was to send him to the reform school, where he could learn a trade and be made a man of. He was sent back.

The Excellent Tournament in Progress in

Great progress was made yesterday in the singles will be concluded today. The play of Music Thursday evening. The program is this afternoon is sure to be very interesting cludes an invocation by Rev. Thomas G. Addiand will undoubtedly attract the largest crowd that has yet been present. Yesterday the athe results were disappointing to a majority of is as follows: the fair ones, who were well represented. In- Lily E. Black, Annabel Brady, Bertha O. eed, it might be said, in the phrase of the track, that it was not a day for favorites. There was plenty of good play nevertheless, and the applause was quite as hearty as though it were inspired by the success of Washington's racquet

In the meantime Woodward and Goodfellow were playing off their match which, was interrupted by the rain. It stood one set for Goodfellow and the score three-all when stopped on Saturday. This match was also begun where left off and Woodward won by careful work. He won the first three games and thus took the set by the score of 6-3. The third and deciding set was a hot one and both men played with unusual care. Each won in turn until the score stood 5-4 in favor of Wood-ward, and that player had the advantage in the next game, but a double fault and a misplay, together with one of Goodfellow's best drives, gave the latter the game, and Woodward was obliged to work hard for his next two games that gave him the set, 7-5. This gave the match to him and he went into the second

OTHER MATCHES in the preliminary round were played as follows: B. K. Peter beat R. B. Brown, 6-4,6-4; Jenkins beat Collamer, 6-2, 7-5; E. A. Hall beat Chambers, 6-1, 6-0; V. G. Hall beat Steele, 6-1, 6-1; Metcalf beat W. B. Chilton, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

THE FIST ROUND was entirely played during the afternoon and carried Borden, Woodward, Thompson, E. A. Hall, Sheibley, Wright, V. G. Hall and Mc-Cawley up to the second round. The match between Borden and W. G. Peter attracted a good deal of attention, both being first-rate District men. Borden took the first set 6-1 and t looked as if he would win with hands down. But in the second set of the match the smaller man who opposed him picked up in his pla and gave his antagonist a sharp rub. The sec ond set resulted in favor of Borden, 10-8. This section and fully capable of holding up his reputation in the contest for the District prize. He is careful and does not know when he is beaten, quality that stands him in good stead in a

B. K. Peter and Woodward played much the same sort of a match, the score being identical. Woodward took the first set, 6-1, and had to play his best to win the second, the score of which was 10-8. Young Mervin Thompson, who is regarded by many as one of the coming players of the District, beat Jenkins, 6-1, 7-5. Jenkins was somewhat tired from his play with Collamer in the preliminaries and gave Thompson a good chance to place his balls with suc-cess. E. A. Hall beat R. S. Chilton, 6-2, 6-2,

He plays a waiting game, and it succeeded in this instance. He won the second set, 6-4, and took the third one and the match by the score of 7-5. Spring-Rice defaulted to V. G. Hall and McCawley defeated Metcalf without trouble by the score of 6-2, 6-0.

THE SECOND ROUND. Three of the four contests in the second round were played, and the coming of dark along prevented the start of the other end. E. A. Hall had a hard time defeating Thompson, the score standing 6-4, 6-4. The games were all close and interesting, and the stubborn opposition of the home player evoked the most encouraging sort of applause. Wright made no bones over taking Sheibley's scalp by the score of 6-0, 6-3, and thus he will be pitted in the third round against V. G. Hall, who defeated McCawley after a most exciting contest. Wright made no bones over taking Sheibley's scalp by the score of 6-0, 6-3, and thus he will be pitted in the third round against V. G. Hall, who defeated McCawley after a most exciting contest. It was beginning to grow dark when the last game of the set which decided the match was played. McCawley won first, 6-3, and his opgame of the set which decided the match was played. McCawley won first, 6-3, and his opponent took the next by the same tally. Both men were nerved up to the highest pitch and played their best game. It was a match worthy of a final, and the interest of the spectators was intense. The third set was a disappointment to the home folks, for Hall improved in the same ratio that McCawley went to pieces. The score, therefore, was badly against the local man, Hall winning, 6-2.

The afternoon was perfect for good play and the men seemed to be in first-class condition. The courts were smooth and even and accurate play was the order of the day.

THE FIRST MATCH

of the day was between Davidson and Wright, in the preliminary round of the singles, being the finish of that begun on Saturday, which stood a set apiece and six-all on the third set when the storm came. The match was started from this point, and was, therefore, quite short. Wright seemed to have improved in his play since Saturday, for he was harder in his drives and more careful in his placing. Davidson, too, played a strong game, but he had little heart and played as if it were against a foregone conclusion. Wright won the first game, and placed the set 7-6. On the change of courts Davidson did better, and managed to pull the score out a little, but this game, too, went to the man from outside, and the match was won by the score of 8-6.

TEMPERANCE IN A TENT.

A Summer Campaign Against Alcohol

Commenced Next Sunday. The temperance workers in Washington will commence their open-air warfare under their big tent, corner of 8th and I streets northeast next Sunday afternoon. One thousand seats will be arranged. The tent will be pitched first in one section of the city and then in another until the gospel of temperance has been preached to all the citizens of the District. During 1889 and 1890 5,000 persons signed the pledge of total abstinence as a result of these meetings and these workers expect their efforts this year to be more fruitful than either of the former ones. The following comprise the board of management: John R. Mahoney, chairman; J. H. Muirhead, secretary; Dr. C. N. Whitney, correspondent; Mrs. E. A. Chambers, treasurer; Dr. J. T. Hensley, chorister; Dr. S. S. Bond, James C. Lee, grand chief ruler of the Rechabites; William J. Boyd, Job Harris, T. L. Salkeld, grand secretary of the Rechabites; J. S. B. Hartsock and William Mobley. A final meeting for arrangement of work was held at the Hotel Fredonia last night, at which some of the most prominent temperance work-ers in the District were present and expressed the opinion that by united effort the one-mile limit law could be so amended as to embrace

It is likely that the next meeting will be held in the old engine house, 19th and H streets, which has been put in complete order, but the formal house warming, it is probable, will not take place until fall, when the first organization of a fire company in each of the four fire wards of the city will be celebrated.

ALBAUGH'S.—"The Queen's Lace Handkerchief" and the towering bonnets of hundreds of ladies in waiting were presented at Albaugh's last night, the Carleton Opera Company handling the "Handkerchief" and the feminine portion of the audience appearing under the auspices of the high bonnets. It was a great audience, too. Scarcely a vacant seat on the main deck, the "quarter" deck loaded all around and the audience composed largely of "our best people." It was a "perfect ovation," as the oriental and tropical reporters say, and the people on the stage were inspired by the display in front to their very best efforts. The result was eminently satisfactory and everybody was pleased. Some had their doubts as to Mr. Carleton singing the interpolated "Toreador" as it should be done, but they were dissipated on the spot and he was encored. A prettier queen was never seen than Miss Vincent and Miss Langdon was as cute as Mr. Bigelow was funny. Miss Wisdom was immense and Miss Winston was decorated with the usual "floral tribute." Mr. Murray was in fine feather and the others and the chorus were in it to the full extent. Again tonight and tomorrow. Thursday night comes "Nanon" for the remainder of the week.
